

THE REAL ESTATE COUNCIL

Associate Leadership Council Class of 2018 Commitment Form

Participation in the Associate Leadership Council (ALC) is a rewarding and demanding commitment. Each class member should expect to devote a minimum of 20 hours each month to ALC, some of which will be during business hours.

Commitment

- Chairman's Reception: The Chairman of The Real Estate Council hosts this first opportunity for individuals to interact as a class. The chairman of The Real Estate Council shares thoughts on leadership, balancing a busy schedule and the ALC experience. The first homework assignment and important information on the executive coaching process will be disseminated during this event.
- Retreat: An out-of-town leadership and team building retreat
- TREC Orientation: TREC Staff will lead the class through this mandatory orientation on TREC.
- Leadership Lunches: This signature lunch series spotlights notable business leaders and their perspectives on leadership. A minimum of two lunches will take place during the program.
- Monthly Programs: A full-day formal program one Friday per month, October through June.
- Community Service Project: Class members form a project team to select, plan and execute a community service project that is funded by The Real Estate Council Foundation.
- Leadership Development: Professional leadership development and executive coaching is provided throughout the program.
- Fundraising: Class members' primary focus for fundraising is selling FightNight raffle tickets in support of The Real Estate Council Foundation.

Requirements and Attendance

Attendance at the ALC Retreat and full participation in homework assignments, project planning and workdays is mandatory for all class members. If a class member will miss the Chairman's Reception or any class programs they must receive approval from class leadership in advance. Each class member is permitted to miss a cumulative total of up to 12 hours of formal programming. Failure to meet any of these requirements will result in immediate dismissal from the class without tuition refund.

Financial Responsibility

The ALC program fee is $4,500 and must be paid in full by September 15, 2017. Individuals applying to the program must be current members of The Real Estate Council.

This signed and dated form should be submitted with the candidate's complete application no later than 5 p.m. on Thursday, August 10, 2017. Incomplete or late applications will not be accepted.
